

NEW YORK (N.Y.)

WORLD-TELEGRAM

and SUN Approved For Release 2000/04/13 : CIA-RDP7

Circ.: e. 453,331

Front Edit Other
Page Page Page

Date: MAR 15 1961

The World Over

South Africa Faces Rebuke, But Stays in Commonwealth

Edited by NED BOCHON

The Americas.

Anti-Castro guerrillas set fire to two nationalized Woolworth stores in Havana and bombed two other retail centers. A government broadcast blamed "McCarthyite Allen Dulles," the director of the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington.